Enabling and empowering women learners
for technology careers

Huge gender gap in technology workforce

Women constitute roughly half the total population of the country. As per All India Survey on Higher Education 2018-19 report published by the Ministry of Education, Government of India, the ratio of female enrollees to male enrollees increased from 84% in 2014-15 to 95% in 2018-19. Employability is ranked at 46%. Despite this, participation of women in the workforce – specifically in roles related to the 4th Industrial Revolution - has remained low. According to the World Economic Forum's Gender Gap report 2020, only 17% of current workforce in Cloud Computing is female. For Artificial Intelligence, this stands at only 24%. For engineering in general it is just 20%.

India is among the 10 countries with lowest female workforce participation

TechSaksham Program

Edunet Foundation, with support from Microsoft Corporation India Pvt. Ltd. And SAP India Pvt. Ltd., had launched the TechSaksham Program, for enabling, empowering, and accelerating women learners from underserved communities or backgrounds towards technology careers. The program aims to upskill female learners in key industry relevant domains and high demand areas - Artificial Intelligence, Cloud Computing and Full Stack Web Development to create pathways towards industry by supporting them with jobs or internships or micro-entrepreneurship opportunities

TechSaksham: Program Overview

- TechSaksham has a program duration of 160 hours.
- Over 40 hours of optional and supplementary content.
- Content is delivered in a hybrid mode (Offline & Online).
- Access to Learning Management System with Self-Paced Courses, Class Recordings, Assessments and option to track individual progress.
- Focus on experiential learning; Guiding Exercises, Team Projects and Expert Sessions.
- Access to Microsoft and SAP self-paced courses.

Saying no isn't always easy—but it's often necessary.

Situations we often face in professional space

- ✓ When a colleague asks you to take on a project you don't have the bandwidth for
- ✓ When you get an invite you're just not up for, knowing how to say no politely keeps things from getting awkward.
